Due Date: Sunday, November 15th @ 11:59PM on Moodle
Length: 2400-3000+ word essay + *BOTH* Works Cited and Bibliography
Grade Weight: 20%

This is the Main Event. The Showstopper. The Grand Finale.

This is the Final Paper: the culminating assignment of all of your research from this semester. This essay is an 8-10 page (2400-3000 words). You need to cite at least 8 sources, with 4 being academic sources. This means this paper will have both a Works Cited page and a Bibliography

What It Is:

For this assignment, you will finish the essay that you started with the Research assignment, rounding out your research and following through with your argument. The essay for this unit is 2,400-3,000+ words (8-10+pages).

By the end of the essay, you must directly cite 8+ different sources, which includes at least 4 academic sources (this means you will have at least 8 citations on your Works Cited page). You will also include a Bibliography of at least 10 sources. You may continue to list any texts you've been working with during the semester.

*NOTE: your final bibliography does not need to be annotated, nor will you include your annotations here, nor do you need to do annotations for any other sources you find, though I recommend it as a research strategy.

Goals:

- To rehearse rewriting arguments and research questions.
- To rehearse argument development and expansion.
- To rehearse MLA citations and research integration.
