Job Description

As an Academy Consultant, you are often the face of Cerner to clients. You communicate, collaborate and work to design and customize clients' new or updated computer systems. When joining your team, you will receive comprehensive training to become a subject matter expert supporting specific Cerner software services.

Much of your time will be spent communicating with and educating clients. As you help shape their system you foster strong relationships, empowering them to see how technology can save lives, decrease errors and reduce wasteful spending. Your end goal is to successfully transition a client through a Cerner implementation which includes system testing, troubleshooting, issue management, training and go-lives.

Sometimes your work will take place with clients in their clinical environment, so you may frequently travel to their location.

When hired into the Consulting Academy, you reap big benefits. During training, you will gain insights into Cerner's consulting methodology and will begin project work immediately. You'll work alongside the experts to gain knowledge and skills that will prepare you for a long-term, meaningful
