Synopsis

John, Sam, and Maya convince their parents to let them go camping. Their parents hire Tom, whom they have known for two years, to go with their kids and ensure they stay safe. Same, John and Maya are loading their stuff into Tom's truck. Toms is acting very gentle, and he helps them load their property into his car. After driving for four hours on the highway, he enters an exit and starts diving into the middle of nowhere. The kids start feeling unconvertable and ask where we are going. Tom tells them, do worry, they are going to a beautiful lake, he knows. They did not believe him, but they arrive, and they see the lake and a lot of flowers around it, which looks very beautiful. Sam says thank you, Mr. Tom. This place is gorgeous.

They unload their stuff and make one big tent for Same, Maya, and John and another for Tom. Around 10 pm, they started a fire and cooked some food. The weather is excellent, and the moonlight in the sky and the fire help them see around them. Tom is an excellent cocker; he cooked some chicken for the kids, and the more they get to know Tom, the more they like him because he seems a lovely person. They go to their tent to sleep. John is very excited for the next day, but before he goes to sleep, he tries to call his mom and tell her everything is going well and they are enjoying their camp; he notices there is no service in the area they are in. he tells Sam and Maya, but they seem they do not care.

They wake up the next day and go to the lake to catch some fish. They cook their breakfast, but they do not see Tom. They think he still sleeps. It is 6 pm. The weather is getting worse, and intense thunder and rain. They run back to their tents. Maya is very scared and starts to cry; John tells her there is nothing to worry about; it is just rain. It is midnight, someone is opening their tent, Maya screams, and Sam takes his flashlight and throws it toward the tent door, and says who is this? It is Mr. Tom. Do not worry, Tom replies, and another man is next to him. John asks who that man is next to you; Tom says he is a friend, and he is a doctor. He has a lot of medical equipment with him and many medical devices. Tom says do not worry, just go to sleep. Tom and his Friend went back to their tent. After one hour, John goes to Tom's tent to listen and check who the doctor is. John is next to Tom's tent, and he hears Tom saying to his friend we should first kill John and take his heart because I already know a customer who is looking for a 17-year-old heart; we will do that once they are sleeping; maybe around 3 am.

Johns returns to his tent and tells his friend that they need to leave the camp because Tom and his Friend are planning to kill them. As he was ruing to his ten, Tom heard John's steps. Sam Maya, and John leave the ten and start running. Tom and his Friend started following them. John tells his friend to go in a different direction to make it harder for Tom and his Friend to catch them. The land is slippery. Maya slips and hurts her leg and starts crying; Sam goes to her, carries her, and starts running as fast as he can. Sam and Maya can hide but wonder what happens to John.

Tom tells his friend we need to find them because our life is in danger if they escape. They are still looking for the kids. Tom plans to kill all of them because he is so mad now. He sees some footprints and starts to follow them. He slips because the floor is so wet but does not get hurt much. He keeps walking and finally sees the Same Maya crying and shaking. He says here they are. He pulls and hits them and takes them back to the camp. The doctor asks Maya how old you are? She is crying and says only sixteen; please do not kill me. Tom shakes his head and tells his friend we will make good money; I'm sure she still has her two kidneys.

No one still knows where John is. Once they arrive at the camp, Tom and his Friend realize John is still messing. He tells his friend to go and look for him and gives him a gun. Tom's friend goes to the forest looking for John after ten minutes. They all hear a gunshot. Tom laughs and says well, he got him. Then after 15 minutes, a bullet hits Tom in the shoulder then another bullet hits him in the head. John is the one who shoots both Tom and his friend and kills them both. Sam is crying and asks John where did you go? When Tom and his friend followed Sam May and John, John returned to the camp because he remembered two guns were inside Tom's car. Then he waited until Tom and his friend returned to the camp and killed both.

Sam John and Maya go to Tom's car and then head the road back to their home. They are terrified, hungry, and exhausted. Once they arrive on the highway, they see a police officer and tell him the whole story. The police officer tells the kids that Tom is a criminal and that he escaped the death penalty. Then the police department takes the kids to their parents.
