

Feature Film Treatment

Dhruv Patel

7/3/2022

Title: Erased (REVISITED)

ALTERNATIVE TITLE: Escape

Genre: Action, Horror, Suspenseful

World: Japan Toda

Protagonist: Taki

Antagonist: Game Master

Somebody wants something badly and is having difficulty getting it: To figure out where everyone went and what happened to the world.

Inciting Incident: The train doors open, derailed and in the middle of the streets with no one in sight.

Act 1: Taki begins his day playing a game on his computer, as he receives a message on his phone from a group chat. They invite him to a coffee house where they will get on a train to catch a ride to Toda Japan. Taki gets ready, packs his bags and heads out.

Act 2: Taki meets up with his friends Akario and Yui at the coffee shop and head towards the train station. Approaching the train station they catch the train to Toda, arrive on the train, and where as the three fall asleep. The group wakes up as the train is derailed from the track above the ground and in the middle of the street with no pedestrians or civilians to be seen.

Act 3: The group walks away from the train in the middle of the street where a street sign lights up telling the group to follow. The group follows towards the sign arriving at the nearby light near a building with other people around them . The group approaches the building towards an elevator at the end in the middle of the building stating to enter to live.