

Alabama Educator Code of Ethics Quiz Internship

Score: _____

Name: _____ Semester in Course: _____

Major: _____ Degree: _____

Directions: Read each question and select the best answer. Select the answer by placing a circle around your chose.

1. Two Educators went to a restaurant on Friday for pizza and beer. Later, they attended the high school football game.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

2. The Educator allowed a student who had been kicked out of the house to spend the night on the couch at the Educator's house until the next day when other arrangements could be made. The Educator notified her supervisor and DHR the next day morning.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

3. The Educator made a sales pitch to her class regarding a nutritional supplement and distributed free samples to the students. She encouraged them to help her sell the product.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

4. The Educator checked "no" on the Alabama State Dept. of Education's application for the question "have you ever committed a crime of moral turpitude" since she had previously acknowledged her criminal history the previous time her certification was renewed.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

5. The administrator was informed by a teacher of a rumor regarding an inappropriate relationship between the assistant football coach and one of the cheerleaders. He chose to do nothing because it was only a rumor at the time.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

6. A teacher allows one of her students to enter grades into the computer, health data regarding students, and information regarding Response to Intervention. The student is president of the Beta Club and her mother is an assistant principal of the school.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

7. Two teachers are standing in the hall during class change discussing an IEP and a 504 of two fourth grade students. As the students enter one of the classrooms one student add comments to the discussion.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

8. The Educator was charged with a misdemeanor Possession of Marijuana while holding certification as an Alabama Educator.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

9. The Educator had sex with a student the day after she graduated from high school on May 23rd.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

10. The Educator, a coach for a school sports team, used school system funds to purchase equipment for the team. The Educator also ordered equipment for his son who was not on the team. The Educator used school system funds to pay for the son's items.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

11. The Educator was running late to work because his daughter was home sick. He's a single parent taking care of a 3 and 5-year-old. He asked another educator to complete the electronic timesheet online for him, so he could get paid for the full day. He asked the other educator to watch his class until he arrives.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

12. The teacher gives a two week notice on July 1 to accept a higher paid teaching position in a neighboring school system. The current school system rejects her letter of resignation, but she leaves anyway.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

13. A student was hitting his classmates during class. In order to teach the offending student not to hit people, the Educator encouraged and allowed several classmates to hit the offending student.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

14. While acting as a proctor for an Alabama State Department of Education state assessment, the Educator takes out a cell phone and replies to a text message while the students are working on a 60-minute section of the test.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

15. The Educator accepts personal checks and cash from a parent to purchase classroom supplies. The parent and the educator have a great relationship.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

16. A first grade teacher is running behind with grading papers. Her favorite parent volunteer is working in her class today. The Educator ask the parent to help her grade the papers and to place the papers in each student's individual take home folder.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

17. The principal of the school visits an Educator's classroom when students are out of the classroom to discuss a disciplinary issue about a student.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

18. Teachers are attending a grade level or department data meeting. They are discussing the students in their classes behind closed doors. The data will be used to review strategies and to help the students make academic progress.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

19. A parent walks up to the Educator at a football game and starts to ask questions about another student but not about her own child. The teacher stops the conversation quickly.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation

20. The Educator graduated from a college going to the National Playoff game. The Educator has requested a day off work for a personal day, but the administrator of the school did not approve it. The Educator calls in sick on the same day.

A. Violation of the ethics code

B. Not A Violation