“The proper definition of a man is an animal who writes letters.” -- Lewis Carroll

CLASS

- Draw a scene from your Shuttlesworth story (or from the film or your reading).
- Tweet that pic or post it on Instagram with the hashtag #EH204.
- Discuss generating story ideas.
- Write letters to our elected officials.

From Market Street to City Hall, San Francisco, May 26, 1963. SF News.

HOMEWORK

Visit the online archives of the BSC student newspaper(s). Select three years before 1995 and skim or read everything digitized for that year. Write three to five ~~tweets~~ short items to share about what you find. What were the stories about? Who was interviewed? How was the writing?

On the Story Bank forum on Moodle, post at least six story ideas, three of which should be BSC-centric.
